Eric McWilliams, Paralegal:

In response to the January 30, 2007 communication mailed from the TTAB requesting certain information in this case, the applicants in this case have submitted all the information required in the Board's communication. As yet, no action appears to have been taken on this matter and the matter has appeared on our docket for follow up. Since we have received no communication from the Board in more than six months on this matter, we believe it is appropriate to request status of the concurrent use proceeding. If there are any additional documents or information required to conclude the proceeding, the Interlocutory Attorney is requested to contact the undersigned as soon as possible.

Counsel is well aware of the pressure the Board's docket, however, that this concurrent use proceeding has been unusually delayed since its inception. It appears that because of some administrative error at the Board, the proceedings were not instituted in a timely fashion. Both
